Sphere™ Xero™

The Armodilo Sphere (Xero) adds additional brandability to the award-winning design of the Sphere. Put your own unique finishing touches on any space with this playful and quirky desktop iPad or tablet powered kiosk, and take advantage of its customizability to personalize your interactive touchpoint or point-of-sale system. The unique base design of the Sphere (Xero) features the ability to be set up in either landscape or portrait mode, a full 90° range of motion for the perfect sharable screen and an optional 360° rotational base plate add-on. Wherever you place it and however you customize it the Sphere (Xero) invites the whole world to engage with you.
