

ARMOILO™

Tilt Xero™

The Armodilo Tilt (Xero) is our lowest-footprint secure iPad and tablet mount for kiosk and display installations. Designed for enhanced interactivity, full brandability, and open access to tablet features, the Tilt (Xero) is easy to mount on any wall, desktop, or countertop, providing a rugged personalized interactive touch-point with a built-in 90° range of movement. If you love the tilt-head design of the Sphere, but you're looking for more flexibility in a wall-mounted installation, you'll love the Tilt (Xero).
